Annex 1. Oslo Ministerial Decision: European Forests 2020 and Oslo Ministerial Mandate for Negotiating a Legally Binding Agreement on Forests in Europe. 10
1. Introduction

At the FOREST EUROPE Ministerial Conference held in Oslo, Norway, 14-16 June 2011, the ministers responsible for forests in Europe adopted two Oslo decisions: Oslo Ministerial Decision: European Forests 2020 and Oslo Ministerial Mandate for Negotiating a Legally Binding Agreement on Forests in Europe (Annex 1). This work programme is elaborated with the aim to put the Oslo ministerial decisions into action. It is developed to advance the successful realisation of the shared vision for forests in Europe and the related goals and 2020 targets for European forests, as well as to support the negotiations of a legally binding agreement on forests in Europe as mandated.

The work programme addresses the prioritised joint European actions identified in paragraph 24 in the Oslo Ministerial Decision: European Forests 2020. The work programme activities should feed into the work of the Intergovernmental Negotiating Committee (INC) on preparing a legally binding agreement on forests in Europe. The activities of the Liaison Unit regarding servicing the INC should be also seen as an integrated part of the work programme of FOREST EUROPE, according to the Oslo decisions.

The work programme embraces activities with added value at the pan-European level. It specifies collaborative actions that are supplementary to national follow up activities. The work is to be guided by the mission and tasks for FOREST EUROPE as specified in the Oslo Ministerial Decision: European Forests 2020, paragraphs 20 and 21 (See annex).

The programme elements and activities are to be carried out in cooperation with partners and other organisations, such as the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, the United Nations Economic Commission for Europe and the European Forest Institute and should strengthen cooperation with relevant regional bodies and processes in Europe and elsewhere. All actions should further enhance the visibility of forests and the forest sectors multiple contributions to global challenges and societal needs.

The tradition of transparency and flexibility with regard to developing, implementing and reporting on the work programme should be continued - including the ability to accommodate emerging issues.

2. FOREST EUROPE Commitments

Since 1990, nineteen resolutions have been adopted at five Ministerial Conferences. In Figure 1, an overview of these FOREST EUROPE commitments is presented in relation to the three pillars of Sustainable Forest Management.
Figure 1. Resolutions adopted at five Ministerial Conferences, 1990–2011 (W: Warsaw 2007; V: Vienna 2003; L: Lisbon 1998; H: Helsinki 1993; S: Strasbourg 1990), and their relation to the three pillars of Sustainable Forest Management (SFM). Please note that the titles of the Resolutions are short titles.
Through the FOREST EUROPE commitments, the concept of Sustainable Forest Management has been defined and continuously developed at the pan-European level. The commitments have also served as a framework for implementing Sustainable Forest Management in the European countries.

The FOREST EUROPE Work Programme gives prominence to issues highlighted by the ministers at the Oslo Conference (2011). The pan-European aspects of these commitments are implemented in cooperation between the FOREST EUROPE Liaison Unit and organisations and institutions operating as international coordinators.

3. Pan-European actions in follow-up to Oslo Ministerial Conference

Both Oslo Ministerial Mandate for Negotiating a Legally Binding Agreement on Forests in Europe and Oslo Ministerial Decision: European Forests 2020, paragraph 24 a-d, present the joint European actions which the ministers decided to address. Concrete actions and inter-linkages for the joint European actions are described in the following sections.

1. Further development of Sustainable Forest Management and its tools

In the Oslo Ministerial Decision: European Forests 2020, paragraph 24 a, the ministers decided on:

Further development of Sustainable Forest Management and its tools

Responding to increasing attention and new scientific knowledge on the multiple roles that forests and Sustainable Forest Management play in tackling global challenges, FOREST EUROPE will step up efforts and further consolidate the pan-European policies and tools for Sustainable Forest Management, taking into account biodiversity and climate change commitments, emerging threats to and pressure on forest resources as well as the role of forest owners.

This action is an overarching element interlinked with the other actions in the work programme. It should build on and respond to the other actions, and also contribute to better coordination of policies and tools on forests and forest management at pan-European, European Union and national levels, including the development of a legally binding agreement on forests in Europe.

To facilitate coordination and consolidation of forest policies, the further development of Sustainable Forest Management and its tools should:

- Feed into the work by the Intergovernmental Negotiating Committee (INC) for a legally binding agreement on forests in Europe, e.g. on terms and definitions as well as reporting requirements.

- Facilitate further improvements in forest monitoring and reporting, including measurement of achievements on Goals and 2020 Targets for European forests.

- Identify differences and resemblances between concepts: Sustainable Forest Management; sustainable use; sustainable management.

- Address new commitments and current challenges in a proactive and strategic way, in order to attain the full potential of forests and seize emerging opportunities and new knowledge, including on:
  - Biodiversity: New commitments in CBD (Convention on Biological Diversity), indicator developments, evaluation, restoration, new demands on protected areas, safeguards concept, enhancing Sustainable Forest Management in productive forests.

  - Climate change: Adaptation needs and mitigation role of forests, land use, land degradation, desertification, bioenergy, and UNFCCC (United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change) commitments.

  - Increasing demand for timber both for energy and timber products from sustainably managed forests.
• Increasing demands for verification of sustainability/legality.
• New demands on socio-cultural aspects of forests, e.g. human health, workers’ rights, etc.
  and economic aspects like non-wood forest products.
• Further develop elements on Sustainable Forest Management policy.
• Build on former FOREST EUROPE work, e.g. the Working Group on “Sustainability Criteria” for Forest Biomass Production, including Bioenergy\(^1\), as well as other ongoing efforts.
• Be based on experiences in the preparation of the State of Europe’s Forests 2011 report (quantitative and qualitative indicators) and respond to the possible common data collection with FAOs FRA 2015 for quantitative indicators.

The expected outcomes of this action are the consolidation of pan-European policies for Sustainable Forest Management, a further improvement of the pan-European Sustainable Forest Management Guidelines and an updated and focussed set of pan-European indicators, including the related background information (Vienna 2002), and possibly other tools for Sustainable Forest Management.

2. Further improvements in forest monitoring and reporting

In the Oslo Ministerial Decision: European Forests 2020, paragraph 24 b, the ministers decided on:

Further improvements in forest monitoring and reporting

Stressing the importance of adequate, accessible and evidence-based forest information at all levels of policy making, and for informing the broader public, FOREST EUROPE will further improve the basis for forest monitoring and harmonised reporting systems to serve emerging needs, including for verification of legality and sustainability.

A common data collection with FAO’s global Forest Resource Assessment (FRA) 2015 is being explored to enhance improvement of quality and harmonisation in data collection and reporting.

\(^1\) Report from working group with recommendations for further development of FOREST EUROPE policies and tools is available on:
http://www.foresteurope.org/docs/work_programmes/MCPFEWGsustainabilitycriteriaFinalreport.pdf
Regularity and quality in data collection will ensure consistent time series for the pan-European quantitative indicators, while avoiding separate pan-European reporting on very similar issues as the global FRA. For streamlining of reporting and avoiding duplication of work, data on quantitative indicators collected jointly with FAO’s global forest resource assessments every five years will be used for the preparation of future State of Europe’s forests reports, while data on the qualitative indicators will be collected when a report is being prepared. And the reporting should be based on pre-experiences, like the State of Europe’s Forests 2011 report.

In the longer term, the improved pan-European forest monitoring and reporting should reflect the amendments in Sustainable Forest Management and its tools, including valuation of ecosystem services, serve verification of sustainability/legality, and facilitate evaluation of achievements on goals and 2020 targets for European forests.

The expected outcomes of this action are reduced reporting burdens for countries through common reporting on the pan-European quantitative indicators and FAO’s global resource assessment, and future improvements of consistency and comprehensiveness in reporting on Europe’s forests and on the goals and 2020 targets for European forests.

3. Strengthened efforts against illegal logging and related trade

In the Oslo Ministerial Decision: European Forests 2020, paragraph 24 c, the ministers decided on:

Strengthened efforts against illegal logging and related trade

Responding to the severe consequences of illegal logging and related trade and to the challenges posed by global deforestation, and in order to complement and underpin efforts by the European Union and the ENA/FLEG process against illegal logging and related trade, FOREST EUROPE will further strengthen efforts for good governance and forest law enforcement, inter alia by cooperating to ensure that timber traded within or into FOREST EUROPE signatories derives from legally harvested forests, and by facilitating the exchange of lessons learned.

Building on former initiatives, FOREST EUROPE will seek ways to strengthen forest governance and ensure that timber traded within or into FOREST EUROPE signatories derives from legally harvested forests. FOREST EUROPE will work together with the European Commission, Regional Environmental Centre (REC) and others to facilitate exchange of lessons learned, and identify future priority areas for enforcement at national and pan-European levels.
The expected outcomes of this action are generating more attention to illegal logging and its effects at national and pan-European levels, and identifying effective measures to assess and eliminate illegal logging and related trade.

4. Valuation of forest ecosystem services

In the Oslo Ministerial Decision: European Forests 2020, paragraph 24 d, the ministers decided on:

Valuation of forest ecosystem services

Stressing the importance of the full range of forest goods and services, FOREST EUROPE will develop a common approach to valuation of forest ecosystem services and promote its use, with the aim of raising awareness of the contributions to societies of multiple forest functions, to serve informed decision making and to assess achievements against the 2020 targets.

Noting the extent and variety of forest goods and services, FOREST EUROPE will develop a common approach to valuation of forest ecosystem services. The activity should build on former and on-going work and experiences in countries and by organisations, and aim at representing and consolidating different initiatives.

The expected outcome of the action is a common pan-European approach to valuation of multiple forest services which will facilitate awareness-raising on the multiple contributions of forest functions to societies, serve informed decision making and help assessing achievements against the 2020 targets for European forests.

5. Sustainable forest management in a green economy

In the Oslo Ministerial Conference, the ministers emphasised the role of forests in transitioning to a green economy and stressed the need to highlight the lack of emphasis being placed on social aspects of forestry and the need to adapt to changing societal needs and priorities.

Stressing the need of maintaining and enhancing forest functions under new challenges and to fostering green jobs in a transition to a green economy, FOREST EUROPE assisted by lead actors like Finland, Germany, BWI, UNECE, EFBWW, IUFRO and others will facilitate the exchange of views and identify future priority areas for enhancing economic and social aspects of forests and to address the role of forests and Sustainable Forest Management in a green economy at national and pan-European level.

In order to enhance the role of forests and green jobs in a green economy and their contribution to sustainable development, FOREST EUROPE will seek ways to strengthen green jobs and would develop a strategic approach to raise awareness and to serve decision making on the contributions of multiple forest functions to local, national and regional economies, learning from former initiatives, including: work related to the ECE/FAO Action Plan for the Forest Sector in a Green Economy; the UNEP Green Economy report; the outcomes of the conference “Contributions of Forests to a Green Economy”, a country-led initiative in support of the United Nations Forum on Forests held on 4-7 October 2011 in Bonn; the outcomes of the United Nations Conference on Sustainable Development in Rio in June 2012 (Rio+20); and the Partnership for Action on Green Economy initiative.
6. Servicing the Intergovernmental Negotiating Committee for a Legally Binding Agreement on Forests in Europe

A legally binding agreement on forests in Europe must be developed, as mandated by the ministers at the Oslo Conference. In this regard, the Liaison Unit was requested and the European Forest Institute and the United Nations Economic Commission for Europe, the Food and Agriculture Organisation of the United Nations and the United Nations Environment Programme were invited to service jointly the negotiation process.

VISION FOR FORESTS IN EUROPE

17. SHARE the following vision:

To shape a future where all European forests are vital, productive and multifunctional. Where forests contribute effectively to sustainable development, through ensuring human well-being, a healthy environment and economic development in Europe and across the globe. Where the forests’ unique potential to support a green economy, livelihoods, climate change mitigation, biodiversity conservation, enhancing water quality and combating desertification is realised to the benefit of society.

GOALS FOR EUROPEAN FORESTS

18. DECIDE on the following goals for European forests in support of the shared vision:

I. Sustainable management of all European forests ensures multiple forest functions and enhances lasting provision of goods and services.

II. European forests contribute to a green economy, including through increased provision of wood, other forest products and ecosystem services from sustainable sources.

III. Forest management in Europe is being adapted to changes in climate, forests are healthy and resilient to natural hazards and protected against human-induced threats such as forest fires, and the productive and protective functions of forests are maintained.
IV. The potential of European forests to mitigate climate change, through carbon sequestration in trees and soils, carbon storage in forest products and substitution of non-renewable materials and energy sources, is utilised to minimise Europe’s ecological footprint without harming the global carbon balance.

V. The loss of forest biodiversity in Europe is halted and degraded forests are restored or rehabilitated.

VI. The role of forests in combating the progress of desertification is strengthened.

VII. Socioeconomic and cultural benefits, especially for livelihoods, rural development and employment from European forests are optimised.

VIII. Illegal logging and associated trade in wood and other forest products are eliminated in Europe.

EUROPEAN 2020 TARGETS

19. DECIDE on the following European targets to be achieved by 2020 in support of the shared vision and the goals for forests:

I. All European countries have developed and are implementing national forest programmes, or its equivalent, in line with the shared vision and goals and the pan-European approach to national forest programmes.

II. In addressing emerging issues forest knowledge is improved through research, education, innovation, information sharing and communication.

III. In response to political objectives on the use of renewable raw material and energy in Europe, the supply of wood and other forest products from sustainably managed forests has increased substantially.

IV. The full value of forest ecosystem services across Europe is being estimated with a view to using common valuation approaches, and that values are increasingly reflected in relevant national policies and market-based instruments such as payments for ecosystem services.

V. All European countries include strategies for forests and climate change adaptation and mitigation in national forest programmes or equivalents and all other relevant national strategies.

VI. The rate of loss of forest biodiversity at habitat level is at least halved and where feasible brought close to zero, and measures are taken to significantly reduce forest fragmentation and degradation and to restore degraded forests.

VII. The role of forests in combating desertification is fully recognised and forests are also managed to that end.

VIII. All European countries have policies and measures which ensure a significant increase in socioeconomic and cultural benefits, especially for human health, livelihoods, rural development and employment from forests.

IX. Effective measures are taken at regional, sub-regional and national levels to eliminate illegal logging and associated trade.

MISSION OF FOREST EUROPE

20. DECIDE on the following mission for FOREST EUROPE to advance realisation of the shared vision, the goals and the 2020 targets for forests:

FOREST EUROPE enhances the cooperation on forest policies in Europe under the leadership of ministers, and secures and promotes sustainable forest management with the aim of maintaining the multiple functions of forests crucial to society.

21. DECIDE that to fulfil the mission, FOREST EUROPE will undertake the following tasks:

a. Develop and update policies and tools for sustainable forest management, including by facilitating open and flexible policy dialogue, active participation by relevant stakeholders and cross-sectoral cooperation and coordination with other actors;

b. Monitor, assess and facilitate implementation of commitments on forests and sustainable forest management in all European countries and in the region as a whole;

c. Promote education, research and the use of scientific knowledge and facilitate sharing of experiences across countries, sectors and stakeholders on all aspects of sustainable forest management and other forest related issues;

d. Raise awareness and understanding of contributions by FOREST EUROPE to sustainable forest management in relevant fora including at international level and among the public, including through implementation of the communications strategy.

EUROPEAN AND NATIONAL ACTIONS

22. ENDORSE the Pan-European Guidelines for Afforestation and Reforestation with a special focus on the provisions of the UNFCCC, developed in collaboration with Environment for Europe/Pan-European Biological and Landscape Diversity Strategy;

23. NOTE the progress made on European Forest Types and encourage continued refinement of forest classification integrated with work on further reporting and development of sustainable forest management and its tools;

24. DECIDE to develop a FOREST EUROPE work programme with prioritised joint European actions to be carried out in cooperation with partners and other organisations, such as the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, the United Nations Economic Commission for Europe and the European Forest Institute. The work programme should, in parallel to the work of the Intergovernmental Negotiating Committee on preparing a legally binding agreement, address the following actions:

a. Further development of sustainable forest management and its tools

    Responding to increasing attention and new scientific knowledge on the multiple roles that forests and sustainable forest management play in tackling global challenges, FOREST EUROPE will step up efforts and further consolidate the pan-European policies and tools for sustainable forest management, taking into account biodiversity and climate change commitments, emerging threats to and pressure on forest resources as well as the role of forest owners;

b. Further improvements in forest monitoring and reporting

c. Strengthened efforts against illegal logging and related trade

    Responding to the severe consequences of illegal logging and related trade and to the challenges posed by global deforestation, and in order to complement and underpin efforts by the European Union and the ENA/FLEG process against illegal logging and related trade, FOREST EUROPE will further strengthen efforts for good governance and forest law enforcement, inter alia by cooperating to ensure that timber traded within or into FOREST EUROPE signatories' derives from legally harvested forests, and by facilitating the exchange of lessons learned;
d. Valuation of forest ecosystem services

Stressing the importance of the full range of forest goods and services, FOREST EUROPE will develop a common approach to valuation of forest ecosystem services and promote its use, with the aim of raising awareness of the contributions to societies of multiple forest functions, to serve informed decision making and to assess achievements against the 2020 targets.

25. COMMIT to further develop and implement national policies for sustainable forest management in accordance with national and local conditions and priorities, and to monitor and report on the progress towards sustainable forest management, and in line with this jointly explore measures to improve monitoring of the achievements of the European 2020 targets.

2. During the course of a debate, the Chair may announce the list of speakers and, with the Committee’s consent, declare the list closed. The Chair may, however, accord the right of reply to any Party if, in his or her opinion, a speech delivered after he or she has declared the list closed renders this justified. When the debate on an item is concluded because there are no other speakers, the Chair, with the Committee’s consent, shall declare the debate closed.

3. During the discussion of any matter, a representative of a Party may move the adjournment of the debate on the subject under discussion. d. To adjourn the debate on the subject under discussion.

Rule 9.11 – Proposals and amendments

1. Proposals and amendments shall normally be introduced in writing and submitted to the Secretariat, which shall circulate copies in official languages to all representatives of Parties 6 weeks before the opening of the session. As a general rule, no proposal shall be discussed or put to the vote at any session of the Committee unless copies of it have been circulated in the official languages of the session to all representatives of Parties not later than the day preceding the session. Subject to the Committee's consent, the Chair may, however, permit the discussion and consideration of proposals or amendments that have not been circulated or have only been circulated the same day, in which case the proposal or amendment has to be read out in a formal session.

2. A motion is considered to be an amendment to a proposal if it adds to, deletes from or revises that proposal. The Committee shall decide on an amendment before it decides on the proposal to which it relates, and if the amendment is adopted, the amended proposal shall then be voted on.

X. DECISIONS

Rule 10.1 – Adoption of decisions

1. The Committee shall make every effort to reach agreement on all matters of substance by consensus. If all efforts to reach consensus have been exhausted and no agreement is reached, the decision shall, as a last resort, be taken by a three-quarters majority of the representatives present and voting.

2. Decisions of the Committee on procedural matters shall be taken by a majority of the representatives present and voting.

3. If a vote is divided equally, the proposal shall be regarded as rejected.

4. Where there is disagreement as to whether a matter to be voted on is a substantive or procedural matter, that issue shall be decided by a three-quarters majority of the representatives present and voting.

Rule 10.2 – Voting on proposals and amendments

1. If two or more proposals relate to the same question, the Committee shall, unless it decides otherwise, decide on the proposals in the order in which they have been submitted. Any proposals or motions requiring that no decision be taken on the substance of such proposals shall, however, be considered as previous questions and shall be put to the vote before them.

2. When an amendment to a proposal is moved, the amendment shall be voted on first. If two or more amendments to a proposal are moved, the Committee shall first decide on the amendment furthest removed in substance from the original proposal, then on the amendment next furthest removed from the original proposal and so on, until all amendments have been decided on. Where, however, the adoption of one amendment necessarily implies the rejection of another amendment, the latter amendment shall not be put to the vote. If one or more amendments are adopted, the amended proposal shall then be voted upon. If no amendments are adopted, the proposal shall be put to the vote in its original form.

Rule 10.3 – Voting rights

1. Each Party shall have one vote, except as provided for in paragraph 2.

2. A regional economic integration organisation shall, on matters within its competence, exercise its right to vote with a number of votes equal to the number of its member States participating in the Committee. Such an organisation shall not exercise its right to vote if any of its member States exercises its right to vote, and vice versa.

Rule 10.4 – Method of voting

The Committee shall normally vote by show of hands, but any representative of a Party may request a roll-call, which shall then be taken in the English alphabetical order of the names of the Parties, beginning with the Party whose name is drawn by lot by the Chair. If, however, at any time a Party requests a secret ballot, that shall be the method of voting on the issue in question.

Rule 10.5 – Recording of roll-call

The vote of each Party participating in a roll-call shall be recorded in the report of the meeting.

Rule 10.6 – Conduct during voting

After the Chair has announced the beginning of voting, no representative of a Party shall interrupt the voting except on a point of order in connection with the actual conduct of the voting. The Chair may permit representatives of Parties to explain their votes, either before or after the voting - except when the vote is taken by secret ballot - and may limit the time allowed for such explanations.

Rule 10.7 – Division of proposals or amendments

A representative of a Party may request that parts of a proposal or of an amendment shall be voted on separately. If objection is made to the request for division, the motion for division shall be voted upon. Permission to speak on the motion for division shall be given to only two representatives of Parties in favour and two against. If the motion for division is carried, those parts of the proposal or of the amendment that are subsequently approved shall be put to the vote as a whole. If all operative parts of the proposal or of the amendment have been rejected, the proposal or the amendment shall be considered to have been rejected as a whole.

Once admitted, the right of observers to be represented may be withdrawn if so agreed by one-third of the Representatives present and voting.

Rule 12.2

In the event of a conflict between any provision of these Rules and the Oslo Ministerial Mandate the latter shall prevail.
